El Paso is truly unique as a bowl host and we're glad to share it with you!

The Sun Bowl Association and our 700-plus volunteers are dedicated to providing our guests with an experience that surpasses all expectations. We are known for our friendly hospitality and intend for all of our guests to leave with an appreciation of our region. Best Regards,

Scott Mann
President
Sun Bowl Association

It's that time of year again, where all the sweat and tears have paid off; where two teams stand head-to-head for one final showdown. It's time for the 85th Hyundai Sun Bowl.

It is a true honor for Hyundai to be the title sponsor of the Sun Bowl. There could not be a better place other than El Paso. El Paso truly has everything from diverse cuisines, beautiful weather and one of a kind shopping. Where else can you be miles away from home, but still feel like you are at home?

This is Hyundai's eighth year of sponsorship of the Hyundai Sun Bowl, and we are looking forward to many more years. We have come to expect from the Sun Bowl a great game that every patron and player will never forget; where in those sixty minutes everything is left on the field. Last minute touchdowns, hard-hitting plays and fourth-down conversions are just some of the exciting plays that await this year's Hyundai Sun Bowl.

Hyundai of El Paso was established in 2001 as a family run business, and now welcomes the Hyundai Sun Bowl into its family. So sit back, and enjoy great food, exciting entertainment and an even better game. Welcome to the Hyundai Sun Bowl.

Sincerely,

Oscar Leeser
President
Hyundai of El Paso

It gives me great pleasure to welcome all of you to this prestigious event. The wonderful city of El Paso hopes to not only bring you terrific entertainment, but first-class hospitality as well. From our fine cuisine to the gorgeous sunsets, we hope you have a memorable stay here.

We welcome you to the beautiful Sun Bowl Stadium. This venue provides one of the most unique settings, not only for college football, but for any event, as each and every seat comes with a picturesque view of mountainous West Texas. From 1935 to the present day, this game has thrived on bringing excitement to its fans through gritty competition. It is our goal to provide you with the best possible experience, and today we strive to bring you just that.

Although the bowl game is the marquee event for the Sun Bowl Association, there are many other events throughout the year. From the Academy Sports + Outdoors Sun Bowl International Soccer Tournament, Sun Bowl Marathon All-America Golf Classic, FirstLight Federal Credit Union Sun Bowl Parade, WestStar Bank Don Haskins Sun Bowl Invitational, to the Hyundai Sun Bowl Fan Fiesta presented by El Paso Live, the Sun Bowl Association and its Board of Directors, along with our hundreds of volunteers, work tirelessly to bring you an amazing event for your enjoyment.

It doesn't matter if you are representing the Pac-12, the ACC or just a huge fan of college football, I hope you enjoy every moment you spend in El Paso. We hope each and every one of you will make a return trip to our city and region in the future. We at the Sun Bowl Association, along with our Board of Directors and all of our volunteers, thank you for supporting the Hyundai Sun Bowl game. We hope you had an amazing year and wish you a fruitful and prosperous year in 2019!

Sincerely,

Bernie Olivas

El Paso Inc. is a weekly newspaper focused on El Paso and the greater region. El Paso Inc.'s B Section covers arts, culture, entertainment and sports and publishes the Official Hyundai Sun Bowl Guide. The guide is free and stocked at more than 100 sites around the El Paso area.

This year marks the 85th edition of the nation's second oldest bowl game – the Hyundai Sun Bowl. Since the first Sun Bowl was played on January 1, 1935, as a fund-raising event for a local service club, the game has grown into El Paso's number one attraction.

On October 18, 1934, at a meeting of the El Paso Kiwanis Club, Dr. Brice Schuller suggested that the club sponsor a football game on New Year's Day matching an El Paso High School All-Star Team against a worthy opponent. Dr. C. M. Hendricks, the first Sun Bowl Association President, submitted the name "Sun Bowl" and it has been named that ever since. The following year, a weeklong schedule of events was added to the Sun Bowl festivities, and thus the "Sun Carnival" was born.

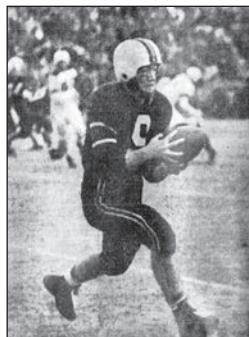

With the rising costs needed to maintain the game, the Sun Bowl attracted John Hancock Financial Services, as its first bowl title sponsor, becoming the John Hancock Sun Bowl in 1986. This marked the country's first ever corporate sponsorship of a college bowl game.

After a two-year hiatus with no title sponsor, Norwest Bank became the game's title sponsor in 1996. Norwest merged with Wells Fargo Bank in 1999 and the game was renamed the Wells

Fargo Sun Bowl. In 2004, the publicly-traded El Paso based company Helen of Troy became the game's fourth ever title sponsor and the Sun Bowl was renamed the Vitalis Sun Bowl. After extending the sponsorship contract in 2006, Helen of Troy opted to promote another product renaming the to the Brut Sun Bowl. In June of 2010 Hyundai Motor America agreed to become the current title sponsor of the Sun Bowl game.

The Sun Bowl Association was founded in 1934 with a threefold purpose: 1) to present a football attraction of national importance, 2) to promote El Paso and the Southwest and 3) to generate tourist income for the area.

In 1936, New Mexico State and Hardin-Simmons Universities were invited to play, and the Sun Bowl has been a college game ever since. During the early years of the Sun Bowl, it was a tradition to match the Border Conference Champion against the best available opponent. Today, the Sun Bowl matches the Atlantic Coast Conference versus the Pac-12 Conference.

For the last 84 years, the Sun Bowl has featured the color and pageantry that is college football. Eight of the top 10 winningest programs of all-time have participated in the Sun Bowl. Through the years, 39 Sun Bowls have been decided by a touchdown or less, including eleven of the last seventeen games. In its first 82 years, the Hyundai Sun Bowl has featured 78 different programs including Notre Dame, Alabama, Texas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Florida, West Virginia, Virginia Tech, Miami (Fl), and USC, totaling up to more teams than any other bowl in the nation.

The Sun Bowl has not been a stranger to having some of football's greats come through the Sun City's game of the year. Players like Tony Dorsett, Barry Sanders, Don Maynard, James Lofton, Carson Palmer, LaDainian Tomlinson, Jonathan Stewart, Thurman Thomas, and Priest Holmes have all gone to battle on the gridiron throughout the years. Not only have great players come through here, but legendary coaches have also loomed large on the sidelines. Gridiron generals like Sammy Baugh, Tom Osborne, Barry Switzer, Grant Teaff, Don Nehlen, Bob Stoops, Nick Saban, and Frank Beamer have all brought their teams to play in the Sun Bowl.

There have been eight times since 1984 that the Sun Bowl has eclipsed 50,000 fans, including the 2010 game featuring Notre Dame vs. Miami (Fla.) (54,021), that sold out in only 22 hours after the teams were announced.

At the end of the 85th Hyundai Sun Bowl, fans will file out of Sun Bowl Stadium and head home, leaving with another set of lasting memories. There have been many unforgettable moments over the years, but none of them would have ever been possible if it had not been for the vision of the El Paso Kiwanis Club.
