On behalf of the Sun Bowl Association and the great city of El Paso, I welcome you to the Tony the Tiger Sun Bowl football game. We're honored that you are joining us in celebration of our 89th playing of the Sun Bowl.

The Sun Bowl Association plays host to the second oldest bowl game in the United States. The game and related events bring national attention to our region and provide a tremendous stage to showcase our local attractions, businesses and hospitality.

El Paso is a very unique city because it borders Juarez, Mexico importing exquisite food, rich culture, and a different language. We welcome you to the area and hope you enjoy the beauty of our mountains, endless outdoor activities, our historical and cultural sites, and get to taste the flavors of our diverse community while basking in our magnificent weather. El Paso is truly unique as a bowl host with the Sun Bowl Stadium built right into the mountains and we’re glad to share it with you!

The Sun Bowl Association and our 700-plus volunteers are dedicated to providing our guests with an experience that surpasses all expectations. We are known for our friendly hospitality and intend for all of our guests to leave with an appreciation of our region. During your stay, we invite you to attend our other activities surrounding the Tony the Tiger Sun Bowl game, including the Sun Bowl Pregame Fan Party presented by Visit El Paso, Sun Bowl Fan Fiesta presented by El Paso Live which is December 29th at the El Paso Convention Center, and the WestStar Don Haskins Sun Bowl Basketball Invitational which is December 21st and 22nd.

I am honored to serve as President of the Sun Bowl Association. I hope your time here in El Paso will be an experience you will cherish and the bowl game will be something that you remember for years to come. If you need anything during your stay, let me or one of our volunteers know. Our goal is for you to leave here with warm and lasting memories of our game and our city.

Best Regards,

Robert Dunlop
President
Sun Bowl Association
Dear Football Fans,

It’s my GR-R-REAT pleasure to welcome you all to the 89th annual Tony the Tiger® Sun Bowl.

This matchup has been months in the making, with 13 weeks of games all coming down to the next 60 minutes of action. The two teams you are about to see got here through excellence, hard work and dedication. Congratulations to ALL the players here today!

I’m excited about the game and grateful to you, the fans, for letting me be part of the tradition. As you enjoy the game, you can also feel good that I’m helping return the Sun Bowl to its inaugural mission — helping kids play sports. In 1935, the first Sun Bowl was played to benefit underprivileged children and to finance improvements for the El Paso High School stadium.

Today, through Mission Tiger, I’m helping to save middle school sports from budget cuts that threaten to leave kids sidelined. Buy a box of Kellogg’s Frosted Flakes® and help support the mission* Visit MissionTiger.com to learn more.

Enjoy the game with a fun and delicious bowl of Frosted Flakes. Remember, you’re always welcome on my team!

Stay Great,

Tony the Tiger

*Kellogg is donating $2 per purchase to DonorsChoose with Kellogg’s Frosted Flakes receipt upload. Min. Donation $250,000 - Max. $500,000. Go to missiontiger.com for instructions. Applies to purchases between 1/1/22 and 12/31/22; must upload within 30 days of purchase.
Greetings! After two years of uncertainty, we are happy to be playing a "normal" Tony the Tiger Sun Bowl again, and I would like to welcome all of you to the 89th edition of the second oldest game in the country.

Hospitality is the name of our game, and I know that you will experience nothing but the best in our great city. The culture, the cuisine, the entertainment, the scenery, and the history of this desert setting is second to none when it comes to hospitality. I guarantee you will not be disappointed.

Voted one of the best venues in college football, the Sun Bowl Stadium offers a truly unique setting. Every seat comes with a picturesque view of the Franklin Mountain and the Chihuahua desert of West Texas, as well as a peek into New Mexico and Old Mexico. From 1935 to the present day, this bowl game, in this beautiful setting, continues to bring the excitement of its fans through outstanding competition. It is our goal in providing you with the best possible experiences, and memories.

The Sun Bowl Association and its Board of Directors, along with our hundreds of volunteers, all inspired to work tirelessly to bring amazing events to the El Paso region. Although the bowl game is the marquee event for the Sun Bowl Association, there are many other events our organization puts on throughout the year. The Glasheen, Valles & Inderman Injury Lawyers Sun Bowl Thanksgiving Day Parade, the WestStar Don Haskins Sun Bowl Invitational, and the Tony the Tiger Sun Bowl Fan Fiesta presented by El Paso Live, are only a few of the sixteen events sponsored by the Association.

Whether you are here to cheer on the Pac-12, the ACC, or just a huge fan of college football, I know you will enjoy the time you spend in El Paso. We hope each one of you will make a return trip to our city and region in the future. We thank you for supporting the Tony the Tiger Sun Bowl game and wish you a Happy New Year and a very prosperous and fruitful 2023.

Sincerely,

Bernie Olivas
Executive Director
Sunbowl Association

This year marks the 89th edition of the nation’s second oldest bowl game – the Tony the Tiger Sun Bowl. Since the first Sun Bowl was played on January 1, 1935, as a fund-raising event for a local service club, the game has grown into El Paso’s number one attraction.

On October 18, 1934, at a meeting of the El Paso Kiwanis Club, Dr. Brice Schuller suggested that the club sponsor a football game on New Year’s Day matching an El Paso High School All-Star Team against a worthy opponent. Dr. C. M. Hendricks, the first Sun Bowl Association President, submitted the name “Sun Bowl” and it has been named that ever since. The following year, a week-long schedule of events was added to the Sun Bowl festivities, and thus the “Sun Carnival” was born.

With the rising costs needed to maintain the game, the Sun Bowl attracted John Hancock Financial Services, becoming its first bowl title sponsor, becoming the John Hancock Sun Bowl in 1986. This marked the country’s first ever corporate sponsorship of a college bowl game.

After a two-year hiatus with no title sponsor, Norwest Bank became the game’s title sponsor in 1996. Norwest merged with Wells Fargo Bank in 1999 and the game was renamed the Wells Fargo Sun Bowl. In 2004, the publicly-traded El Paso based company Helen of Troy became the game’s fourth ever title sponsor and the Sun Bowl was renamed the Vitalis Sun Bowl. After extending the sponsorship contract in 2006, Helen of Troy opted to promote another product renaming the Vitalis Sun Bowl to the Brut Sun Bowl. In June of 2010 Hyundai Motor America agreed to become the title sponsor of the Sun Bowl game, but decided to step away after 9 years, allowing for Kellogg’s to take over as the sponsor for the newly named Tony the Tiger Sun Bowl.

The Sun Bowl Association was founded in 1934 with a threefold purpose: 1) to present a football attraction of national importance, 2) to promote El Paso and the Southwest and 3) to generate tourist income for the area.

In 1936, New Mexico State and Hardin-Simmons Universities were invited to play, and the Sun Bowl has been a college game ever since. During the early years of the Sun Bowl, it was a tradition to match the Border Conference Champion against the best available opponent. Today, the Sun Bowl matches the Atlantic Coast Conference versus the Pac-12 Conference.

The Sun Bowl has featured the color and pageantry that defines college football. Eight of the top 10 winningest programs of all-time have participated in the Sun Bowl. Through the years, 41 Sun Bowls have been decided by a touchdown or less, including thirteen of the last nineteen games. In its first 84 years, the Tony the Tiger Sun Bowl has featured 80 different programs including Notre Dame, Alabama, Texas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Florida, West Virginia, Virginia Tech, Miami (FL), and USC, totaling up to more teams than any other bowl in the nation.

The Sun Bowl has not been a stranger to having some of football’s greats come through the Sun City’s game of the year. Players like Tony Dorsett, Barry Sanders, Don Maynard, James Lofton, Carson Palmer, LaDainian Tomlinson, Jonathan Stewart, Thurman Thomas, and Priest Holmes have all gone to battle on the gridiron throughout the years. Not only have great players come through here, but legendary coaches have also loomed large on the sidelines. Gridiron generals like Sammy Baugh, Tom Osborne, Barry Switzer, Grant Teaff, Don Nehlen, Bob Stoops, Nick Saban, and Frank Beamer have all brought their teams to play in the Sun Bowl.

There have been eight times since 1984 that the Sun Bowl has eclipsed 50,000 fans, including the 2010 game featuring Notre Dame vs. Miami (Fla.) (54,021), that sold out in only 22 hours after the teams were announced.

At the end of the 89th Tony the Tiger Sun Bowl, fans will file out of Sun Bowl Stadium and head home, leaving with another set of lasting memories. There have been many unforgettable moments over the years, but none of them would have ever been possible if it had not been for the vision of the El Paso Kiwanis Club.
